CALLING THE REMNANT OF EPHRAIM HOME AMIDST THE PENDING DESTRUCTION OF EAST JERUSALEM

I write here about my adventures with Abba for one reason: That you might have your own adventures in serving Him, in knowing Him, and participating with Him in these glorious final hours before Messiah comes! In no way do I think of myself as above anyone else, for I know that without His mercy I would have nothing but the lake of fire to look forward to. Psalm 40:1-5 summarizes my testimony.

Here I sit in my own rented apartment for six weeks in Tiberias, feeling the heavy heart and grief of Abba Yahuweh for His people, along with His Psalm 2 angry declaration of wrath, "I have set My King on My set-apart mountain." I am here to learn more of what He has for me to proclaim in intercession over His set-apart portal area of East Jerusalem – Mt. Moriah, Mt. Zion, the Mt. of Olives. I am here to learn what He has for me to declare in the U.K., to open portals for the return of Ephraim, to repent for the sins that sent the ten northern tribes into exile, causing Yahushua to have to come and die to restore the Covenant with them. His reason for coming is little known by His people, and unknown by the Christian world. But, to fulfill His own Torah, He had to come and die, and rise, in order to include Ephraim with the House of Judah in His Covenant. The whole Word is a love story, about a coming wedding, about an eternity of Elohim with His people – the whole House of Ya'cob!
Intercession must be done on site. I lived in Aqaba, Jordan, for 8 years. One morning I went to get something at an electronics store. It was 9:45 AM, and the store opened at 10:00. I sat there waiting. I saw people coming and going, looking in the window to see if the store was open. Then they'd turn and walk away. About 10:05, here came a jolly man with a big ring of keys. He opened the door and the people filed in, with happy greetings. As I watched this, Abba spoke to me: "Prayer can be done anywhere; intercession must be done on site". Intercession is the key that unlocks doors, gates, portals, and plans for Yahuweh's entrance into this world – a welcome call by His faithful trusted servants. This is why "the Spirit and the Bride say `Come' ". He sends His Word into the earth and it will not return to Him void, empty, useless. But, He uses His prophets and set-apart servants to bring His Word into the earth. His Word must be proclaimed by His personal friends—those He knows to only say what He says to say—nothing less, nothing more--for His will to be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Man gave this earth to the Devil, and the Devil, his fallen angels, and his human agents, have since been trying to shut out Yahuweh. Now, using stolen technology from Yahuweh by the fallen ones, as in the days of Enoch, and with a concerted effort by the world's elite Luciferic rulers to shut Yahuweh out, and destroy His creation, the Luciferic elite are ready to go fast forward with the plans of their god to bring him, the Dragon of Revelation 12, and his angels into the earth--and his son, to rule the world.

But, now, Yahuweh has a remnant that He has trained, disciplined, taught and has released to go forth in the earth to stand in the face of the Devil and his angels, and proclaim His entrance and His victory! In late March, He called me to proclaim from two places—up the side of the Mt. of Olives towards the Temple Mount, and from an area that He showed me in a dream in 2008. I knew when I left Israel this last time that He wanted me back in March. I told that to the lady I was staying with. From December 25th through the end of February, the enemy tried to kill me more than once, to weaken me so much that I could do nothing but walk within my the house where I was staying in America, and feeling that my days of travel were over. But, as March was near, He began talking to me about returning to Israel and the assignment on the Mt. of Olives that He had for me. He reminded me of a dream I had in 2008 in which I was sitting on the Mt. of Olives looking at a walled village below at night. I was sitting in a gate on the hill – it was a watchman's gate. I was to watch over this village, sitting high on a hill with deep valleys all around it, and protect it from enemies that would attack from the of me, to the side and to the back of me. I knew it was Zion. At first I did not know the time period I was looking at, however later I realized it was the time of King David before the building of the Temple and before the building of his house. He instructed me that I had to be in Jerusalem the day, in 2011, in which I had the dream in 2008. I arrived the very day three years later that I had the dream. I am obedient, and because of that, He shares many things with me. But, I was sick and tired, and went only on His strength! When I arrived in Jerusalem I was very sick and weak. Because of the long trip and my weakened physical condition, I developed a serious head cold that further weakened me. I had three long flights to get there, and once there I was in 3 hotels in 4 days. I had to have assistance at every point with my luggage. But, while in the U.S., when I went to book the hotel on the Mt. of Olives, in early March, joy leapt in my spirit that was amazingly strong. I was asking Abba where I was sitting in the dream in relation to modern times. As weak and sick as I was, and having an attack of the same pain that put me in the hospital in January, I walked from the hotel to the Garden of Gethsemane, up the side of the Mt. of Olives to the area of the church of Dominus Flavet, to proclaim the Scriptures He gave me. It was in this area of the church that Messiah stopped on His way down to the Temple to receive the praises of His people on what the church calls "Palm Sunday". He wept with uncontrollable sobbing over the city, wishing that He could gather them like little chicks under the wing of a mother hen—thus the name of the church, "Dominus Flavit" in Latin, "the Lord wept". I was in a village in Uganda, waiting to teach the Word in 2000. I saw a mother hen in the corner of the room, as if she was ready for sleeping. Then I saw the heads of little chicks, maybe 5, poking out from under her wings, and then popping down and hiding. This is what our precious Savior wants to do with us – hide us under His wings (His talit). I told Him on the Mt. of Olives, "I want to be one of Your little chicks, hidden under Your wings". He had told me before I left Israel this last time, "I will keep My talit over you". From this place where the church was built, I could see the whole of the Temple Mount before me, the upper Kidron Valley (Valley of Jehoshaphat), and the Eastern Gate, through which Messiah will come in His return (Ezekiel 43:1-7; 46:1-3). It is shut, as Ezekiel saw it. I walked back to my hotel room in pain, realizing that Messiah walked that route in pain of spirit, and King David too, as he ascended the Mt. of Olives in exile from his son Absolom. The Mount of Olives is a portal of the ascending and descending of Yahuweh – a place of pain and suffering, where I believe Messiah died and rose for us, and a place of eventual total victory. As I reentered the hotel room, the pain instantly left. Suspicious, huh … But, I had another part of the assignment to do the next morning, before I left for the Old City. I did that sitting among the tombs along the side of the Mt. of Olives—proclaiming Psalm 83, and His judgment on those that would attack His people. After returning to the Old City, the next day, I went to the City of David. I stood in "Area G", the place of the palace of the Kings of Judah on Zion, overlooking the Arab village of Silwan, where Solomon kept his pagan wives. I saw the hotel I had stayed in, which sits right on the top of the hill of Silwan. I took a picture of the Hotel and the village and the floor of the Kidron Valley, which runs along the hill of Zion, south to north. As I looked at the picture later on, I went numb. Drawing a straight line from the hotel, straight down to the Kidron, just below the hotel was where I sat in the 2008 dream. The very place in the Kidron where the line ended was where, in November of 2010, I had rocks thrown at me by Arab children as I walked through the Kidron, just below the City of David. [Refer to: "The Rocks That Nearly Hit Me" for that story] He had shown me where I sat in the dream, and it was, today, in the midst of His enemies.

In the 2008 dream I was wondering why, since I was alone on the mountain and no one around, that I was to watch over this little village below and protect it from enemies on all sides. But, today, in 2011, that place is surrounded by enemies that want to destroy Israel! In the dream, I knew that I lived in that gate. At the hotel they gave me a map of East Jerusalem. It showed it all with Arab names and locations--not one Jewish name was on it--even the Western Wall was renamed. They are planning for takeover totally. The Muslim propaganda media has taught their people that there never was a Jewish presence in East Jerusalem. They want to erase His place of rest from His people.
In the dream of 2008, I had a little "guard shack" in which I kept my few things. I had a little chair to sit on. But, I knew that it was my home--to guard the city. I knew I was to "live there".
After returning to the Old City, the next day, I walked into the Jewish Quarter to find a post card copy of a painting that had been drawn of the ancient city at the time of Sukkot. I have seen this picture many times and I love it. I found it, and looked at it, and it was almost identical to what I saw in the dream. In the dining room of where I stayed in the Old City is a huge painting that was brought there from England. The painting was of ancient Jerusalem at the time of King David. It was almost identical to what I saw in the 2008 dream. But, the next day, I walked down from the gate to Steimatzsky bookstore to get a newspaper. I noticed they had a book I had wanted, published by the City of David archeologists. It is a beautiful picture book, produced in 2010. I stood there and opened the book to a two-page painting. I went numb. It was identical to what I saw in my 2008 dream – a picture of ancient Jerusalem from the very vantage point at which I sat in the dream. The man who painted the picture has the same last name as my legal name. Of course, I bought the book. I know that until He comes, I must go as often as possible to that place of intercession, also to be in prayer wherever I am over His City. For as you have read and studied in my article "East Jerusalem", going over all the Scriptures to learn from Him, everything from Genesis 3 to Revelation 22 is all about East Jerusalem. When He speaks of Jerusalem in the Word (Yerushalyim) He is speaking about what is called "East Jerusalem". Within this small area, there are three portals of Abba, directly going from earth into His throne room. I got a brochure from the City of David, and also was shocked to see on the back, the triangle drawn out connecting the three portals.

Now, almost daily, the talk in Israel is about what will happen in September, when the Palestinians petition the U.N. to accept them as a separate state. Google in: 1947 U.N. partition of Israel, and click on the wikipedia site. Look at the 1947 map of the U.N. partition of Israel--Jerusalem was assigned to the U.N. as their territory from that time. They can give it to whomever they want, whenever they want. On my walk from the Old City down to the City of David, I saw a U.N. car parked there, with the walls of the Old City behind it. Luke 21:20 is in the making.
As I sat on the Mt. of Olives proclaiming His judgment over His enemies, speaking out Psalm 83, and other Scriptures of His victory, I realized that I was surrounded by His enemies--from the Muslim world, and their friends and mutual brothers, the Roman Catholics. The two are "echad"--united as one, of the same family. They look on the area of Yahuweh's three portals, and have taken them over for now--doors and gates of His entrance into the world--and plan with one heart and mind for the take over of Yahuweh's "resting place". (Psalm 132:13-14)
The Roman Catholic Church was given the Temple Mount in 1993, with Jordan as the overseer. The Roman Vatican and the Muslim Muftis are in unity. The Roman Church has used Islam from its inception to gain the Temple Mount for themselves, and together they plan the destruction of Israel. Yes, Islam took off on its own for a long while, but now it is securely under the umbrella of "Mother Church", as Pope John Paul II so clearly stated.
The Illuminati is comprised of three main parts: Ruled at the head by the Vatican Jesuits, the above 33-degree Masons, and the "Black Royalty" of Europe (the ancient families of Lucifer/Morovingian families). Islam is their tool for the destruction of Yahuweh and His people, to begin the final war that will produce the chaos for the final "order" under anti-messiah.
The world community, aligned through the U.N., the white horse that goes forth on a peace platform to take peace from the earth (Revelation 6) is now working furiously to bring forth the final Part III of the Mazzini/Pike Plan, to bring the chaos that will bring the order – the new world order. [Please refer to the basic information in "Launching the Chaos"]  It is all about putting Lucifer's son, Apollyon, reincarnated Nimrod, on the Temple Mount to reign as god on the throne (portal) of Yahuweh. It's all about East Jerusalem--the whole Word--from Genesis 3 to Revelation 22—through eternity future.

Messiah Yahushua Yahuweh is returning to take back what the enemy is attempting to take over – putting His foot on the Mt. of Olives, descending with "all of His set-apart ones" to the Temple Mount, to rule from Zion. (Zechariah 14:1-5; Isaiah 2:2-4) In Ezekiel 43:4-7 we first hear the Spirit speaking from the throne room. Then Messiah gives Ezekiel a word of prophecy, verse 7: "Son of man, this is the place of My throne, and the place of the soles of My feet, where I dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever, and the House of Israel shall no more defile My set-apart Name…"

Zechariah 14:1-5 says that it is Yahuweh who is coming to put His foot on the Mt. of Olives and descend with all of His set-apart ones. It is Yahuweh who returns to Zion. Yes! It is Yahushua Yahuweh: "Blessed is He who comes in the Name of Yahuweh!" Yahushua Yahuweh is coming to rule and reign for 1,000 years, then Abba Yahuweh comes with His City, and we enter eternity. It is all clearly written out in Revelation 19-22, but also referred to in many passages in Isaiah and by other Prophets.

It is Passover week, 2011. It is the time when we go back to Exodus 12-14 and Leviticus 23, Jeremiah 31:31-34 with Matthew 26:28, and see that the spotless Lamb of Elohim, (John 1:29) who takes away the sin of the world, has renewed the Covenant of Yahuweh in His own blood. The word is "renewed" as the new moon is renewed each month, both in the Hebrew and the Greek languages. Once Abba's Word goes into the earth it is never changed—not one tiny speck of it! Leviticus 17:11 with Hebrews 9:22: "Without the shedding of blood, there is no remission of sin". From Abel onward, sin required the death of a perfect sacrifice in order for Yahuweh to be able to forgive sin. The Temple was destroyed in 70 CE, leaving no more blood sacrifices until the Kingdom age. But, in 28 CE, He provided His Lamb—the perfect sacrifice, with His blood, to atone for the sin of all mankind, especially of the House of Israel, and the House of Judah. No good works can atone for sin--thus says Yahuweh! However, after we are born of the Spirit and come into His Kingdom life, we are citizens of a new Kingdom, and the rules of the Kingdom apply--the Covenant Torah (instructions/teachings) of Yahuweh! Without repentance, and a total coming of out the kingdom of darkness, there can be no forgiveness, no salvation. We must come through the blood of the Lamb to receive the forgiveness of Yahuweh and enter His Covenant. It is the transforming new birth that sets us apart from those who have no eternal life. There are 40 things that the Spirit of Yahuweh does when a person repents of sin and submits their life to following the Lamb of Elohim--as Savior, as Master--by faith in

His death and resurrection. After this transformation into a "new creation", (II Corinthians 5:17) by the Spirit, we begin to walk "in newness of life" and obey the teachings and instructions of the Covenant of Yahuweh (His Torah)—not as a religion, but in Abba's love for one another, His joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, gentleness, with faith and self control. (Galatians 5:22-24) We take on His nature, if we are truly born of the Spirit, and desire only to please Him! We have left behind desire for sin, desire for self-advancement, and we lay down our life for His people. We become bondservants. We die to self, to live only for Him.

Now, as of last week, Abba is asking me to do another almost impossible assignment. At times it is hard even for me to walk. I cannot lift more than 5 pounds without pulling vertebrae and ligaments in my back. I am still very weak. But, He is strong. The life of a servant costs everything we are and have. But, it is the narrow road that leads to life, and "few there be that find it". It is the hard road, but one in which we get to know Him very personally.

I live what I wrote in "Living From the Eternal Mind" – you must too, if you want to survive in the days to come. I asked Him why He so often picks the old, the weak, the lonely, the afflicted, the poor, to do His will. Of course we have the words of I Corinthians 26-29. He does choose the weak of this world to confound the strong. But, here is what He gave me: Luke 12:48: "…and everyone to whom much is given, from him much shall be demanded. And to whom much has been entrusted, from him much more shall be asked".

If we are born of the Spirit, we are bondservants. We are either faithful and obedient bondservants that He knows well and can trust, or we are not – our eternal position depends on what type of servant we are! He picks people who have to totally depend on Him for everything to use to do His will, for most everyone else has pride in their accomplishments. He is training a remnant of broken, crushed, contrite people, poor people who desperate want to know Him.

The price for such a life is nothing less than death to self! I have experienced so much jealousy, betrayal, and vicious wickedness, even witchcraft and slander, against me since I began this walk – 100% from so-called believers, and 99% from Americans, some from the UK. Some have admitted to jealousy of my walk with Abba, or my "Word level", and my blessings that He gives me—i.e. friends and freedom, Abba's personal attention. But, they are unwilling to pay the price for such a life as mine. Yes, I have had adventures and miracles like few have – but that's because I don't tell Him, "no" – I just obey. I try desperately to encourage people to follow Him in simple trust, like a child who loves his Daddy. I only do as my Abba directs. I only write, teach, and speak what my Abba allows. That is the life for anyone born of the Spirit. But most cling to their comfort box, and hate those that are blessed because they are trusted friends of Yahuweh. It is a very hard walk, and the set-apart ones will be targeted by the powers of Lucifer/Satan for 3 ½ years. But, there will be overcomers!

He demands so much of His faithful ones, because they are so few. And in eternity, the few will live in His Presence (Revelation 22:3-5) in His throne room. We all make decisions every day. He is no respecter of persons! Many now who are so prideful in their outward religious observances, will find Him say: "Truly I say to you, I do not know you". Matthew 7:21-23; 25:12. So, isn't it intelligent to prepare, to be His friend, to align to His will, and let go of ours!

In six weeks I will go to the U.K., and begin a new series of assignments to call Ephraim home--to repent for the sins that caused my people—the House of Israel/Ya'cob (House of Ephraim, House of Joseph)--to go into dispersion in 722 BCE. If you read "The Shmittah Year Prophecy", "The Forty Eight Hour Transition" and "The September 12, 2007 Report from Jerusalem" you will see that we are in the last seven-year cycle before Messiah comes. It was on Yom Teruah of September 12, 2007, that the end of Ephraim's punishment also took place. The Orthodox Jews sure knew it! It was the greatest Sukkot since the time of Solomon, and Abba showed me that back in March of 2007. But, to watch it and be in Jerusalem was amazing!
I sat here yesterday thinking of this logistically detailed assignment in the U.K. that He was asking of me for Ephraim. He gave me the Scriptures to proclaim already. When He first began to help me understand what was between my trip to Wales and my flight to Iceland (an overnighter before going to New York), I was staying in another apartment. There was a lovely couple there that was also staying in the apartment who were Spirit-taught, like myself. The fellowship was glorious. The Spirit teaches all of His students the same things! Those taught of man don't get that privilege. Ten million words from man might not change anyone's life, but one short phrase from Yahuweh can totally transform someone's life forever! Yet people would rather run here and there, go on Internet, and pay to attend conferences, to hear the ten million words from man. How pathetic! If your life is not transformed by the Spirit of Yahuweh as a result of your meetings with man--you've wasted your time, and your money!
While talking to the man about going to Iceland, the man began telling me about the foremost point west that the House of Israel went to before crossing the Atlantic. We have mutual friends, a lovely family, who, in obedience to Yahuweh, did intercession for His remnant all across Canada from west to east, ending up at the foremost point east on the North American continent, blowing the shofar over the Atlantic. As the man spoke of this foremost point west, my spirit jumped within me with joy. He mentioned an area that I had longed to go to for a long time, but did not understand why.

The next day was Shabbat, last Shabbat in fact. I sat on my bed, opened my Bible with the prayer that He help me understand this next assignment to call for Ephraim and repent for the sins of the northern tribes. I did not understand much of this—it was new to me, yet it was from Abba. My spirit witnessed with it totally. I opened my Bible to Jeremiah 31:15-23. My eyes rested on verse 21: "set up signposts, set landmarks, set your heart towards the highway—the ancient paths on which you went. Turn back of maiden of Israel. Turn back to these cities of yours!" My spirit leapt within me. He was giving me exactly what He wanted me to do and to say. Then I went to Hosea 11:8-11--a plea I have proclaimed out over the Gulf of Mexico during my four years of intercession for His remnant there. He has taken me to many places, to Alaska, up the rivers of Texas, to the Ohio River, the Kentucky River, to the shores of Jekyl Island in Georgia, all the way to Key West, and around to Corpus Christi, and other places to do intercession for His remnant within the U.S. Then He took me to Milford Haven, Wales, to call out over the Irish Sea for the release of His remnant. He has sent me to the Mediterranean and the Red Sea, for the fleeing and the arrival of His remnant. As with the family that did intercession across Canada, they realize that He is calling His remnant of Ephraim to return to the Land of Israel following the ancient paths by which they came to Western Europe and the North American continent. On my first trip to Israel, I flew over the Hebrides, over Scotland, down over England – where my forefathers came from Assyria following their dispersion, and then went on to America. A tiny remnant of Ephraim is now making their way to the Land, whether on a tour, or to work in vineyards, or to pick olives, or to just stay the limited 3 months to learn, or to try bring some way of working to stay in the land. Yet, soon, He will bring more, and then more, and finally the whole House of His redeemed Israel will come home at His coming. Many are sitting around waiting for an open door to Israel with job ready for them, and a residency visa. Sorry—that's lollypop thinking. We must be about our Abba's business. Many are moving to Central and South America, where He can take Babylon out of them, so that when He does move them into position, they won't balk, or whine like babies, or make excuses, but will be trained to move by His order. But, His people are on the move—that's for sure!

As I sat here yesterday thinking of all that He has said, and realizing there is more I must do, I thought of my dwindling finances. I know the trip to do the intercession at the foremost point west will most likely cost me between around $1,000.00 or more, for buses, planes and hotels, food and other transportation. I thought, oh well … I must obey … Abba will restore it to me. I fear displeasing Him too much to say I can't go and do as He says. I know how faithful He is to me. After pondering this, I went to get my e-mails. My daughter had sent me an e-mail saying that a congregation in Florida, one I did not know about, had sent me $1,000.00. Wow--its true--before we ask, He answers. It was my confirmation!

Life with Abba is very hard at times, but also very wonderful too. He does not see things in a human way. Human in soul-flesh crave security, ease, comfort, convenience, entertainment, a life of happiness and selfish fulfillment. He wants to erase all of that in us--take from us "flesh" and carnality that wars against the Spirit. He wants to make of us total obedient servants, and warriors, faithful and trustworthy, so that we might be trained for reigning in His coming Kingdom! Only the tough survive His training and discipline. He pushes us beyond our limits, so that we might know His strength and faithfulness. Most people are too fearful, cowardly, and pathetic to even begin this processing. But, to know Him in an intimate way, we have to submit and humble ourselves to let Him do what He needs to do to remove all chaff from us.

He then led me to read Daniel 9:1-2. I wrote about this in my last letter. Daniel realized that 70 years of captivity spoken of by Jeremiah the Prophet, were about finished. He checked the scroll of Jeremiah and realized it was really soon. So, he began fasting and praying and repenting for what caused the House of Judah to be exiled to Babylon, along with a small remnant of the House of Israel. He was preparing the way for their return by repentance and prayer and intercession. (Daniel chapter 9) It was in the first year of Darius the Mede that he began his repenting, knowing that soon the 70 years would be finished and the people would be allowed to return to Jerusalem. Then we find from Ezra 1:1-2, and II Chronicles 36:20-23, that in the first year of Koresh (Cyrus) of Persia, the people were allowed to go back to Jerusalem, with his blessing and help.

So, I pondered, how long was it from the first year of the reign of Darius to the first year of the reign of Koresh (his nephew)? This would give me a time frame as to how long before the return of a remnant of Ephraim to join with Judah (Isaiah 11:13-14) before Messiah comes back. I went to history, and found that Darius ruled from 1 to 1 ½ years. This again made me numb, for this assignment in paving the way for Ephraim. Daniel, through repentance was clearing the path for the return of Judah back to the land. The path was strewn with sin and rebellion against Abba. It had to be cleared and forgiveness granted in order for a remnant of Judah to return and rebuild.

And we now have about 1 to 1 ½ years before the anti-messiah comes to the Temple Mount, to get a small remnant of His faithful ones into Israel for His final purposes.

Only about 10% of those of the House of Judah in Babylon even wanted to return. And, so only a remnant of the House of Ephraim will return of their own free will. Most of those fleeing out of all nations will have to be brought up through the Red Sea into the port of Aqaba (Edom) into the UN refugee camp now prepared in "Petra'. I lived in that U.N., U.S. E.U. zone for eight years, and watched all the preparations, and written so much on this subject that I won't go into that now.

If you are going to do anything to obey the Master, do it now. So much is given to us in the Word--begin with obedience to the written Word—the requirements for discipleship. The Acts 1:8 pattern is for us all! He calls us to a life of total abandonment of our self-will, and submission to Him as our Master.

Death is coming to the whole earth. The horsemen of the Apocalypse are riding. What you try to do to promote yourself will fall apart in the face of the horrors to come on this world. Only what you do out of love and fear of Yahuweh will last for eternity.

Peace will soon be taken from the earth as the U.N. proceeds forward with their plan, under the Vatican Jesuits, to secure East Jerusalem for themselves. That's what all this destabilizing of the Middle East Arab nations, the ones of Ezekiel 38, is all about. The push is on … Lucifer's son, Apollyon/Osiris/Nimrod, is ready to sit in the eternal portal of Yahuweh ruling the world.

Below, in Appendix A, is a prophecy that was sent to me by a friend. I not know the vessel through which the prophecy came. But, it encompasses about everything I've taught and said for 45 years. Heed the warning--receive the encouragements, and exhortation--it is from Abba.

I wish you Shabbat Shalom and Chag Sameach! Really enjoy this Passover to the fullest. Spend time with the Savior. Let Him reveal Himself to you--for it may be the last one as we know it, in peace.

My testimony from an old Baptist hymn, with names and titles changed to the now-known real ones:
"My hope is built on nothing less, than Yahushua's blood and righteousness. I dare not trust the sweetest frame, but wholly lean on Yahushua's Name. On Messiah the solid rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand!"

Prophecy for Preparation

Apr 14, 2011| Glynda Lomax

I was shown a vision of a stormy sea – very large black waves were crashing down and wrapping around, crashing against each other. All around the waves I could see only darkness. It looked like the darkest of stormy nights. The word 'turmoil' came to my mind. In the midst of the turmoil of all the crashing waves, a small light appeared, as over the horizon. Like an approaching ship or a distant lighthouse, but very quickly the waves swallowed up the light and it was gone.
Then I saw a frozen landscape, as if in the dead of winter. I have no idea what the frozen landscape meant. The following morning, the Lord began to speak.

"Times are about to become very difficult in the world, My Children. There is no time for playing games. All your time must be focused on preparation for what is to come and on walking in your calling. Remove now the excesses from your lives as I have been speaking to your hearts to do. Lighten the load you carry for you cannot carry as heavy a load on an uphill run and that is what is coming for you."

"Big changes loom on the horizon behind the scenes that will affect your everyday lives."

"Be careful to show kindness to each other, to walk in My love towards one another, as this will shield you from many of the attacks of the enemy and help you to remain focused."

"I will be moving in many of your lives in coming months, orchestrating the changes I desire to make you more fit for kingdom use and to strategically position you for the things I have called you to do. Do not fight against My changes for they are necessary and unless you submit to Me in them, you cannot be of full benefit to My kingdom."

"Turmoil is coming to many governments in the next two months. This is My Hand at work, though it will not seem so to many. Many of My own people do not understand the many avenues I work through. All that is of peace is not of Me, and all that is of war is not either. Nothing happens that I do not allow, and the enemy's plans come as no surprise to Me for I see all and know all."

"My Word holds the key to understanding all things. My Word is My most precious gift to you, My Children. My Word, My Son. If you walk by My Word, you walk in wisdom and the world has no effect on you."

"Those who ignore the power in My Word will fall quickly in times coming for they will not know how to stand against the enemy's onslaught on My People. Be diligent therefore in studying My Word, that you may live and not die. Those who have ears to hear, hear and obey."

"I have sent many to warn of what is coming but many still walk in darkness. Many walk in folly, not believing. They shall be taken quickly, unawares, for they did not believe My Word. All you need to survive you have in My Word. In it is wisdom and guidance. In it are hidden treasures of great price that you know not of."

"Those who obey Me shall survive what is coming. Yeah, not only survive, but prosper in it, for this will be the time of My Great Warriors. This will be the time of the lifting up, of the showing forth of those I have been preparing behind closed doors. This is your time, My Chosen Ones. Now is your time to shine before I finally bring you home to Me!"

"How I long for the day when you all enter into My rest and are all here with Me! I love you with an everlasting love without measure. I long to have you near Me, to hear your voice whisper My Name, to know you trust fully in Me in all things. Draw near to Me and seek Me in these dark times and you shall find Me and we shall be as one. I will hold you close to Me. I will cover you with My feathers and as you see displays of My mighty power, you will not feel afraid at all for I shall protect you as a good shepherd protects the flock for you are Mine and I love you with a jealous love!"

"What is soon coming is the dark night of the soul for some – those who are not ready;  A time of revealing for those who are. This will be My time to reveal to the world who you truly are in Me. Many will stand in awe of the gifts I have placed in you and of My mighty power working through you. Be sure you give Me the glory, My Children. Woe to those who try to take My Glory for themselves for destruction comes quickly to them!"

"Now is a time of much prayer. Pray that you may walk worthy through the turmoil that is coming. Pray that you will not be found wanting in any way. Pray that you will be ready to step in to all I have called you to do for My Name's sake. Pray that you do not stumble in the way, for the battle is quickly approaching. Pray for your brothers and sisters – pray for each other to be strengthened and made ready in every possible way."

"In days to come I will begin to remove obstacles from your path that you may serve Me more fully and efficiently. Watch for these things to happen and inquire of Me about what changes I would have you to make at that time for when I do this, I have a purpose for what was freed up."

"Some of you will hear from Me soon to move or to reposition yourselves for My purposes. Know that I will bring you the means and ways to do so when the time comes and do not fear for there is always provision on the path to which I have called you and to believe otherwise is to believe a lie from the enemy. If you have no provision, check that the path you are on is truly the way I have called you to go, for many times My Children take a wrong turn and think I do not provide but this is never the case. I am a loving and faithful provider." "Hard times are coming, My Children. Times like nothing you have ever encountered before, but I have already spoken provision for you into existence. Look for it for it shall surely appear."

"Prepare well. Prepare to run the race set before you for My Glory!"
