A Word Fellowship News Update
A CLEAR STUDY on the METHODIC SETTING UP of the MIDDLE EAST, ISRAEL, and AMERICA, for DESTRUCTION

Genesis 12:3: Yahuweh's promise to Abram in Ur of the Chaldeans: "And I will bless those that bless you, and curse him who curses you. And in you, all the clans of the earth shall be blessed".

Here are some headlines from the last two days and today:

First of all, are you in prayer – I mean serious prayer? Second, what are you doing to change lives for eternity and build up Abba's Kingdom? What are you doing to prepare for the backlash of Yahuweh's wrath against America – who is forcing Israel's destruction and the division of her land?
We're at "critical mass" – and Israel and America are in the bomb sites of the enemy of us both. But, Abba says that He will stir up the spirit of the Medes against end-time Babylon, for He promises to leave no remnant in this end-time nation that is in the forefront of leading the destruction of Israel.

Here I present an overview of how Israel and America are both being set up for destruction, by the creation of chaos throughout the Arab world to bring retaliation. Out of the smoke will come the "prince of peace"--Beast, man of sin, "son of perdition" (apolia)--Apollyon, son of Lucifer--to rule the world. There is only one nation, a post 1948 nation, the superpower of the whole earth, the one who holds Israel's future in their hands, that will be destroyed to the ground with no remnant left, because of how they set up Israel for annihilation and divide her land to her enemies. [Refer to: "End-Time Babylon" for a Scriptural study]
I have written articles telling of why America will be totally destroyed. One lists 100 sins that enrage Yahuweh ["Judgment on America – Why?"] One tells the pattern of His judgment on the nations. ["The Pattern of the Judgment of Yahuweh"] In the article "America's Secret Destiny" I explain more.

But, daily, His own people go about their business tolerating and condoning, or apathetically overlooking, the very sins that will bring the total destruction, in total disobedience to Yahuweh's pleas and commands. Almost none care about the eternal lives of others – selfishness abounds.
Therefore, the judgment as been passed, and the time of the execution of His wrath is near, but few have noticed.
The plumb line has been dropped for the last time, and now the word is "Prepare to meet your Elohim". (Amos 7:7-8; Amos 4:12b)
Now, He is turning America over for His wrath to be outpoured. He has been using weather phenomenon, most of it man-created by HAARP, decaying morals, economic instability, violence, and now the present administration to try to wake His people up, but they are fast asleep or groggy at least.
He has pleaded through His Word, His watchmen and His prophets. Few have heeded His warnings (Jeremiah 50-51; Isaiah 47 with Revelation 18, Isaiah 10, 13, 24 [Refer to: "End Time Babylon"], Nahum [Refer to: "The Nation of Nineveh"] Ezekiel 28 [Refer to: NAFTA and the Ten Horns" and "What Began on Jekyl Island is About to Fall"]
Quotes from The Late Great United States by Mark Hitchcock (2011): In speaking of Romans 1:20-32: "The `giving over' IS the judgment of Elohim". The homosexual revolution IS the judgment that will bring the wrath. The horrendous abortion rate in America, and America's funding abortions worldwide, will bring the judgment – but because women want to kill their babies, their mind-set IS His judgment. He has given evil ones over to defilement, perversion, and lovers of death.
"The sentence has been passed by the Judge – Death! The total destruction of America in one day will be the execution of the sentence".
"To turn people over to such depravity, they have to have crossed the threshold. Anyone who has subjected themselves to this depravity is a sign they've already broken ties with their Creator, becoming a demonized servant of Lucifer." A truly noble human gains his dignity by not submitting to depravity and choosing to align to the Creator.
The judgment on America has been passed. "Fools make a mock at sin" – and America is the biggest joker of all, making what He calls "sin" to be the desirable and the respectable "in thing". America is the world leader and main missionary of pornography of all types, including child pornography, homosexuality, abortion, illegal drug smuggling, violent movies, violent music, and the use of men, women, and children in Third World nations as slaves in the fields and in the factories, being paid as little as 30 cents a day for 12-hour day work. (See "commodity" #26 in the Wall Street list of commodities in Revelation 18).

Yahuweh has given America over to the lusts of our flesh. He has a set-apart people, but He says He will leave no remnant in America. Therefore, His set-apart people have to be out of America in obedience to His mandate, before the wrath is executed. America is the biggest blasphemer of Yahuweh and His Torah on earth--defying Him, as Nimrod did, to His face, in word and action.

I will quote from David Brennon's book The Israel Omen II – The Approaching Cataclysm (c. 2011) in this article. He gives a systematic list of events that I have been reporting on for some time—back to 2008. He links these clear events to bring a very clear bottom line. When one is shown clearly by the Spirit what is happening, then the mind can use didactic reasoning ("line upon line, precept upon precept") to find the right conclusion. In today's lingo we call it "connecting the dots" to form the picture.
David Brennon makes the statement that Obama's strange moves in the Middle East had left researchers baffled, but now it is finally clear what direction he is taking. That's wonderful! More and more are speaking out about his obvious betrayal of Israel, setting up Israel for destruction, and even the United States.
However, from 2008, in watching his moves one by one, I have been reporting on them, with Scripture, telling you just what each move means, one by one.
I have had no confusion as to the direction he was going since before he was elected. Why? Yes, I've studied and taught the whole Word on each subject for way over 50 years, and studied end-times and taught that subject for over 45 years. But, why would I be able to recognize what professional analysis's did not see until recently? But, because I let the Spirit of Yahuweh teach me. I set aside man's teaching by 1995, realizing it was a bag of opinions. I only want Yahuweh's opinion! So, the Spirit has shown me things as they are, and things to come. (John 16:13) I'm nobody special. That verse is for you, too! You should be following current events, and relating it to what the Prophets have said!
Nothing much is as it appears! The deceptions are so mighty and so widespread over the earth that few see through the fog. But, YOU can see clearly, for Messiah promised us that if we have the Spirit to teach us Truth, "He will guide you into ALL TRUTH and show you things to come". But, it takes getting alone with Him and asking Him to teach, and letting Him teach.

Sorry, folks, He does not work for McDonald's! If He chooses, He will bring confirmation from others who are Spirit-taught, or seculars, or current news – but let Him do the confirming.

Here begin quotes from David Brennan's book, The Israel Omen II – The Approaching Cataclysm , regarding the setting up of the Middle East for the fulfillment of the third part of the Mazzini/Pike Plan of 1871, to bring enough chaos into that region, pitting Arabs and Jews against each other, with the help of Russia, China, Iran, parts of Eastern Europe, Turkey, parts of North Africa, and terrorist organizations, so that the world will cry for "order" – a new world order.
Here clearly given is the set-up. But, for foundational understanding, refer to the article I wrote in January of 2011 "Launching the Chaos".
In all my articles I have one goal: To get you into the Word for yourself! To get you to know His nature, ways, thinking, and requirements for citizenship in His Kingdom – so that you might be His servant to share these things with a lost and dying world.

From The Israel Omen II, beginning with pages: 49, 52-57: "The stage is set for a classic showdown between two ideologies--the liberal Obama Administration and the conservative new Israeli government of Benjamin Netanyahu…In 2008, Obama began immediately to bring about unexpected `change' to America foreign policy in the Middle East, and in Israel in particular. The new president would visit the Middle East to deliver his first major foreign policy speech at Cairo University in Egypt, not even bothering to visit Israel while he was in the area…he added coals to the fire of concern by the region, Turkey this time, and avoiding the Jewish state…"
"Obama would embark on a campaign to pressure Israel into concessions for `peace' that had never before been accomplished by any previous U.S. Administration".
"In line with that pressure, as reported by the New York Times in April 2010, the President sent a letter to Palestinian President Abbas stating that, unlike the past, should Israel do anything that in view of the Obama Administration undermined the peace process, the U.S. would no longer stand in the way of the United Nations resolutions condemning it. The epicenter of U.S. concerns, what it considered an action that would undermine the `peace' process, centered on the issue of building permits for construction in East Jerusalem. This issue, which before had never kept the Palestinians from the negotiating table, was now added to their requirements for sitting down and talking--thanks to the new policy being engaged by the Obama Administration…by March 2010, it became the flashpoint for the most serious break in decades between the two allies".

"The spark that would ignite it came that month during an official visit to Israel by Vice President Joseph Biden. The announcement that a permit to construct 1600 apartments in East Jerusalem was delivered during his visit, and created a firestorm between the two nations, with the incident viewed by the Obama Administration a great insult…Israel had been building in East Jerusalem for the last 40 years and never before had America responded with such anger because of it...Now in the name of peace, America was pressing hard to impact Israeli sovereignty over the Holy City, seeking to restrict development in the eastern part as a first step towards ultimately seeing it become the capitol of a future Palestinian state".

My note: Vice President Joseph Biden is just one of the many hidden "Jesuits" in the American government. As the truthful joke goes: "The ruling power-center of the United States is not the White House, but Georgetown" (the Jesuit University near Washington DC).
"Let's not forget about Jesuit Joe Biden! … With 2 Jesuit Degrees--one from the University of Scranton and one from Saint Joseph's University". Also Jesuit insiders are the former president Bill Clinton, Robert M. Gates, and Leon Panetta. Many Jesuits are leading the U.S. government. (February 25, 2009 from MarcoPonce.com)
Most Jesuits are not priests--they are hidden in secular society in high places in order to change laws and events for the purposes of the Vatican. The Jesuits have ruled America from the inside for about 400 years, in partnership with the Freemasons. The Jesuits, the Vatican, want to control East Jerusalem for themselves, and are using Islam to get it for them. Of course, it is now open knowledge that the Vatican created Islam in order to get the Temple Mount and Jerusalem for itself – for its rule with the political and economic Beast.
In 1993, under the shadow of the Oslo Accord, the Temple Mount was given to the Vatican with Jordan as the overseer. The express spoken purpose of these hidden moves is so that one of their own will sit on the Temple Mount "for the glory of the god that sits in St. Peter's chair", so they say.

More from Brennan: "Never before in the decades since Israel acquired East Jerusalem had building or settling it ceased…But now something quite different about the current U.S. requests, this Administration meant it, and was willing to begin removing its support from the small Jewish state to get it…Obama was beginning a shift in U.S. policy against Israel intended to pressure the Jews into relinquishing Israeli control over the city Ezekiel had foretold over 2500 years ago…"

"The crisis in U.S.-Israel relations would reach its zenith during a visit by Netanyahu to the White House on March 23, 2010, a visit designed to placate the angry Obama Administration. Unlike leaders from nations across the world who are greeted at the opulent White House front door by either the President or the Vice President, the Israeli leader would be required to enter the White House through the back door, an entrance usually used for leaders of rogue nations. A minor presidential assistant was there to greet him…the snubs would increase. Later in the day Netanyahu would be free to roam the White House, reportedly unattended, as the President left his guest to dine with the First Family…It was made clear to Netanyahu that, in order to continue having good relations with the United States it would be necessary for Israel to cease construction of settlements in East Jerusalem... Taking their lead from Obama, the Palestinians declared, unequivocally, that unless there was a construction freeze in East Jerusalem, they would under no circumstances return to the talks…"

From pages 61-62; 64, 66: "Simply put, the Palestinians had the support of the President of the United States on the East Jerusalem issue…As such, it was the Israeli side that had to move because the President of the United States had made this issue his own."
At this time also, chief negotiator from the United States in Israeli affairs, was told his efforts were no longer needed in Israel. Why call off a man who was doing a good job, instigate a requirement that was totally against Israel and pro-Palestinian, which kept any return to the negotiating table impossible. Israel is not about to negotiate on Jerusalem! By making this a requirement, Obama single handedly stopped the peace process, and thus recalled George Mitchell.
"Obama, from the earliest days of his presidency, had joined the Palestinians in demanding that Israel halt construction of more housing in the disputed eastern sector of the city. Netanyahu routinely, bluntly refused".

My Note: Look at a 1947 U.N. map of the partition of Israel. There is a white circle over Jerusalem, saying it is U.N. territory. The Israeli leaders know that. But, they have the Word of Yahuweh on their side!
The Palestinians and the whole Arab world says that all of Israel belongs to them. Yahuweh says all of Israel belongs to Him, and to the family He gave it to – the family of Abraham, Yitzak, and Ya'cob. Since He has the final say, we give the victory shout now – HalleluYah! "Come Yahushua Come!"

So, the battle comes down to East Jerusalem. From Genesis 3 to Revelation 22, the whole Word is centered on East Jerusalem. [Refer to: "East Jerusalem" and "The Rocks That Nearly Hit Me" – November 2010)

[Read Brennan's chapter 4 The Gulf Oil Rig Disaster to see the tricks played to get Mitchell off the job – and how it coincided with the BP oil rig disaster on April 20, 2010].

From pages 75-88: "The Pincer Movement":
"In the art of warfare there is a maneuver called `the pincer movement' and it is accomplished when an enemy is assaulted from opposite sides, and eventually surrounded. The first detailed account of its use comes to us from 216 BC when Hannibal, leading the army of Carthage, used it in defeating the superior forces of Rome. After drawing the army into the center of his forces, Hannibal began to spread his army out and around the Roman flanks, eventually enveloping them. Once that was accomplished, the army of Rome was trapped and then massacred. As 2011 began, it was becoming apparent that the Middle East conflict was experiencing a dramatic shift in the forces arrayed against Israel." [Refer to: "Launching the Chaos", January 2011]
"Since the conflict's beginning the Israelis had always faced the combined weight of the Arab world – all 200 million of them…But, with the election of Barak Obama in 2008, a major shift in the Middle East conflict would begin to take place. And by 2011, it became apparent that Hannibal's pincher movement tactic was being used to surround Israel, diplomatically, and more importantly, militarily…However, early in the new administration, something strange began to take place in the Middle East negotiating process. Instead of attempting to narrow the gaping distance separating the Israelis and the Palestinian positions, the president took a step that actually widened it. The issue centered on the building of Israeli housing in East Jerusalem. Since the 1967 Six Day War, the Israelis had built apartments complexes and other housing in East Jerusalem. Although the Palestinians did not like it, they still would attend negotiations sponsored by the United States in spite of it…That was, however, before Obama. It was the President, not the Palestinians, that suddenly made the continued settlement building in East Jerusalem an issue, declaring that negotiations between the two parties could not resume before settlement building ended. With this new requirement added by the U.S. president, it was now impossible for the Palestinians to their long held position in negotiating…In effect, the Palestinians could not let the American president be more Palestinian than they were…Commentators and Middle East observers who had been carefully watching the region for years, were puzzled…As damaging to the peace process as that new Obama requirement had been, it would only be the beginning of policies that would puzzle Middle East observers."

My note: Former President Jimmy Carter gave away the Panama Canal to Communist China. He told U.S. ally Taiwan that in conflict the U.S. would back Communist China over them. I heard his speech. He created the Taliban in Afghanistan to supposedly stop Russian takeover of Afghanistan. Guess it backfired – or did it? Carter deposed the stable government of the Shah of Iran so that Iran was destabilized, just as Obama destabilized Egypt and is now destabilizing the whole region. Carter's excuse for deposing the Shah, even though an ally of the U.S., was that he was not pushing Democracy in his country. In 5,000 years, what local ruler has ever pushed Democracy? It is a foreign concept to them. In other words Carter, the Baptist Sunday School teacher, was a devil in disguise working for the chaos to bring the new world order. He's still got his finger in the process of destabilizing. He's still a part of the Luciferic elite.

Brennan: "The Shah of Iran, a staunch ally of the United States and a strong moderating force for peace in the region, was undercut by the American president…who moralized on how unfortunate it was that the Iranian people did not have democracy. The ultimate result…was the overthrow of the Shah, replaced by a murderous regime headed by Ayatollahs dedicating to creating chaos throughout the region. Now, instead of being a moderating force, Iran is seeking nuclear weapons and rockets … their target Israel, their stated goal the killing of every man, woman, and child in the Jewish state."

My note: Barak Obama was not the first president to start this chaos process. American government has been methodically destabilizing nations of the world, mind programming its citizen into a fantasy world of non-reality, keeping most world news from them, and setting them up for takeover, since World War I--the initial instigation of Mazzini/Pike Plan of 1871 Part I, and Communism. The mind-programming and destabilization of the economy increased during World War II with the instigation of Mazzini/Pike Plan Part II, the Nazis and Fascism. America funded Hitler and supplied military equipment, along with the Queen of England, and the Vatican (Refer to the book: The Secret War Against the Jews by John Loftus) Now that all their hard work has paid off, they're working feverishly on Part III. [To basically understand the Mazzini/Pike Plan, refer to: "Launching the Chaos", January 2011].

Carter purposely took out the Shah of Iran, a stabilizing force, just as Obama methodically ordered the takedown of all stable regimes on a phony platform of an "Arab Spring" that wants democracy. Arab nations have no working concept of Democracy, thus all this rioting and slaughter because Arabs want Democracy is ridiculous. It is just an excuse by the evil ones to cause chaos, and destabilize governments with staged demonstrations – to bring in regimes like the Muslim Brotherhood to rule, who want the destruction of Israel – and America. Iran and Syria are backed by a pact between Russia and China, who say that if either nation is attacked, Russia and China will retaliate.
Here is a quote from an interview with Colonel-General [ret.] Leonid Ivashov, former member of the Russian Joint Chiefs of Staff, which aired on Russia Today TV on February 1, 2012: Indeed, these two countries (Syria and Iran) are allies, and both are considered guaranteed partners of Russia...A strike against Syria or Iran is an indirect strike against Russia and its interests. Russia would lose important positions and allies in the Arab world. Therefore, by defending Syria, Russia is defending its own interests". Thus Syria runs wild, and Iran too – for a hit on either one will ignite WW III – and Part III of the Mazzini/Pike Plan of 1871 – to bring enough chaos to bring the order – the new world order.

"Therefore, after the revolution that rocked Egypt in early 2011 was finished deposing the friendly Mubarak and leaving the military in charge, it is no surprise that the men in uniform began aligning with the radical Muslim Brotherhood. Immediately after Mubarak left office Kamal al-Hilbawi flew to Iran for an Islamic unity conference being held there. After the conference he declared that he wished to see Egypt emulate Iran's theocracy…In spite of the U.S. State Department being well aware of the Brotherhood's history and radical views, President Obama undercut the long term Egyptian ally, assisting in driving him from power in support of democracy that was almost certain to bring about a radical new order. The results of Obama abandoning the long-term ally were already being seen by mid-2011. Since the overthrow of the Shah of Iran in 1979, Egypt refused to allow any Iranian warships to transit the Suez Canal, thus greatly restricting Iran's ability to spread chaos beyond its immediate region. However, since the revolution in Egypt, Iran is once again being allowed to send warships off the coast of Israel via the Suez Canal. [Refer to: "Launching the Chaos" to see why Obama is so friendly to the Muslim Brotherhood]

"The other pillar of U.S. support in the trouble region is oil rich Saudi Arabia. After watching the Obama administration in Washington undercut the long term U.S. ally in Egypt, the Saudis became enraged with the President…The Saudis, realizing Obama would abandon them as well, took a step few would have imagined possible only a short time earlier. In a move that clearly begins a shift of even more power away from America in the region, Abdullah began sending emissaries to Russia and China, seeking enhanced ties with both. Of course the only way to obtain an improvement of relationships would come directly at the expense of the U.S. By undercutting the two most important U.S. allies in the region, decades of carefully nurtured efforts by American presidents since the 1940s was reversed…In Tunisia, where the great Arab revolt began, its relatively moderate leader, Zine al-Abidine Ben Ali, a friend of the U.S., fell from power. Here, too, he is expected to be replaced with a leader approved by the Muslim Brotherhood…"
"Jackson Diehl, writing for The Washington Post in an article entitled `Why is Obama so tough on Israel and so timid on Syria' would note that: `…just twice since the massacres began three months ago in Syria had Obama said anything about the atrocities'. Assad, with the help of Iran, had heavily armed the terrorist organization Hezbollah, an army of 40,000 on Israel's Lebanese border, and as a result the threat of war on that border with Israel has been constant. An end to the Assad regime could have spelled trouble for Hezbollah and reduced radical Iran's influence".

My note: Russia and China have made a pact to back Iran, and Syria. Iran via Syria supports Hezbollah and Hamas (Muslim Brotherhood in the Gaza Strip), with money and weapons. To take out Assad would mean Russia's hard work would be disrupted. Russia's path into Israel would also be disrupted. Who takes out Damascus is anyone's guess right now. But, as Avi Lipkin once said, he believes that the Isaiah 17 scenario is part of the Russia-Iran attack on Israel (Ezekiel 38). Obama is the perpetrator of the launching of chaos – for Part III of the Mazzini/Pike Plan to go into effect – bringing the order--the new world order. Obama has purposely set up the chess pieces to take out Israel, and the U.S. – while he moves up to new and "better things". He has overlooked the chess pieces set up by his opponent, however, Who already has check mate in sight!

Here I paraphrase pages 84-85: Fatah, the terrorist arm of the PLO, created

Yassar Arafat, as a political catalyst for a non-people group that he named Palestinians, was always a separate entity from Hamas, the Muslim Brotherhood inside Israel. But, recently the two have joined together in pact. Both avowed to destroy Israel – making all of Israel a Palestinian state, with Jerusalem as their capitol. This is only a façade of unity. America has been funding Fatah with tax-payer money and weapons for a long time. Russia and America have done a great job of setting up enemies with finances and weapons inside of Israel.
After Brennan's book came out, Abbas made a plea in the U.N. last September for a Palestinian State, but that has been stalled, for now. The chaos has to be created – the tensions increased. When East Jerusalem is turned over to the Palestinians as their capitol, the Jews, especially the religious Jews, will riot. The U.N. "peacekeepers", mostly Arab and communist, will come in to stop the rioting, and settle in to protect the new leadership of the new world order.
You people who have been listening to man and not the Spirit, who do not know the Word of Yahuweh for yourself, who do not know His nature, ways, and thinking, and still believe that a second temple has to be built before Messiah comes – i.e. the temple of Ezekiel 40-46 – wake up! (Zechariah 6:12-15) Will His people ever stop setting Jewish rabbis up as gods? Go figure – talk about starting chaos! Messiah is not going to have His Temple built by those who are not His servants! Stop throwing logs in the way of His coming chariot!
That whole deception is based on man's idealism, and a mistranslated verse from II Thessalonians, just like the idea of a 7-year tribulation, which is not in the Word anywhere! [Refer to: "Who Will Be Left Behind?"]
And the "anti-christ" is not going to stop the sacrifices in the "middle of the week" – or sign a seven-year peace treaty with Israel – or any other manipulation of Daniel 9 – Messiah did all that already! Get prepared! Get your answers from Genesis to Revelation. It takes effort to learn the Truth. Make sure that everything you believe comes directly from Him into your re-born spirit. He won't talk to your earth-grounded head. [Refer to: "Living From the Eternal Mind"] "Ready or not, here He comes!"

Back to Brennan: "The Obama administration, continuing its efforts to create the best image possible for Hamas, had its supporters go to the media to promote the new line". "First it needed to recognize Israel's right to exist, secondly it needed to agree to respect existing agreements, and third, it needed to renounce terrorism. On all three Hamas was unwilling to compromise. As a result of not being able to get Hamas to alter its ways, it was the Obama administration that decided to change…the Obama administration began lowering the bar established for it to be considered civilized".

"Promising change during the 2008 presidential campaign, the new president succeeded to bring it to the Middle East and especially the alignment of forces arrayed against Israel…The change that occurred brought an old nemesis of the west, the Muslim Brotherhood, out of the shadows and into seats of power in Cairo, Saudi Arabia…Obama's change found its way to the doorstep of Israel. Suddenly, as 2011 began with a new and more dangerous constellation of enemies against Israel, President Obama made his move."

"In the case of Obama, the Middle East puzzle he created was confusing at first. Observers had trouble putting in context his move shortly after taking office to create a new condition before negotiations between Israel and the Palestinians could begin, essentially killing them before they started. Then another piece of the puzzle appeared as Obama undercut long time U.S. ally Mubarak…but was much more generous to America's enemy, Syria…Puzzling yet again, in the case of Egypt, Obama had to know the Muslim Brotherhood was waiting in the wings…Adding another piece to the confusing puzzle was the Hamas-Fatah reconciliation…Strangely Obama did not change U.S. support for the Palestinian Authority in spite of the unity deal. And why would the administration attempt to make bloody Hamas appear more civilized even as its leader reassured the world of its commitment to murder?"

"On May 19, 2011, in a major foreign policy speech, the President would supply the missing piece to his Middle East puzzle, one that would explain his actions, which had previously been confusing. After the picture was formed, a disturbing image would emerge. Hannibal's pincher movement was effectively in place with the President of the United States manning one of its flanks".

Excerpts from pages 109-128: "On May 19, 2011, President Obama clarified to the world, including his stunned Jewish supporters, his vision of peace between the Israelis and the Palestinians in a speech that the President of the Arab League could have given. Speaking the day before Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu was to arrive in Washington to meet with him, the president's speech appeared to be an ambush of the Israeli leader. Taking a position that no American president had ever before, the president laid out a plan eerily similar to what would be voted on at the U.N. later in the year. Not having become official policy of the U.S. government, the President explained to the Israelis the benefit of returning to the `Auschwitz borders' promised by presidents since 1967 that the U.S. would never require Israel to do. Obama, reversing what presidents since Nixon had held sacrosanct, went on to provide the gory details.

The President went on to explain that Israel needed to agree to return to the indefensible borders of 1967 as a condition for negotiations to begin…for negotiations to simply begin…The result of returning to those borders would be an Israel that was nine miles wide at its center. Should the new Palestinian state align with the likes of the Muslim Brotherhood…which is already beginning to happen, and build a military designed for a quick strike against Israel, the Arab goal of `momentous massacre' would finally be achieved…But, the President wasn't finished explaining his vision for peace. He did not state his clear opposition to the Palestinian notion of the `right of return', which would mean that millions of Arabs would be allowed to enter and live in Israel as citizens…
There was a statement in the president's speech, actually several that surprised the listeners…The first was his call to Israel to return to the 1967 indefensible borders. The second was when he called for the new Palestinian state to be `contiguous', essentially with no part of Israel dividing it. That `contiguous' statement meant that Gaza would have to be connected to Judea and Samaria so that Palestinians could travel the length of their new nation without passing through any part of Israel…Israel would have to be divided in two to accomplish the president's goal…obviously the president found that dividing Israel was acceptable".

My note: Now look at two Scriptures of our day, in context, and see how this applies: Joel 3:1-2 (notice: "in those days and at that time" – a Messianic-day expression) and Daniel 11:39. Dividing His Land is something the Beast/world ruler does. He's the guy who pulls it off – for gain. What gain? -- To create chaos so that he will be called upon to bring "peace" – "the order".
Before Obama was even elected, he was in Ehud Olmert's office telling him to give away the Golan Heights.
Condolezza Rice was bold and cruel during the pulling out of over 8,000 Jews from Gaza, in saying that "it is not good enough". She went on to say that they must pull out their people from the Golan Heights, from the "West Bank", and East Jerusalem. What right does America have to tell Israel what to do? What right does America have to tell Mubarak to get out? Is it possible that when the last seven-year cycle began with its first year on Yom Teruah 2008/2009, that the world ruler began his reign with a set-up 3 ½ years? [Refer to: "The Shmittah Year Prophecy" and "The Forty-Eight Hour Transition" for starters on timing] Remember, read the Word. It only says there is a 3½ year, 42 month, tribulation – there is NO 7-year tribulation mentioned in the entire Bible! Be Spirit taught!!!

Brennan: "Essentially, the president effectively was coming out in his speech for Israel to be bisected, so that the new Palestinian state would not have to be…"
"…what he was really asking from Israel was an admission that none of the land it held was secure from being taken away, essentially delegitimizing Israel's existence".
"Obama, knowing that Netanyahu would soon be coming, suddenly announced his intentions to make his speech…The obvious motive on the part of Obama was to present his plan first…The President's speech placed a final nail in the coffin on negotiations".
Refer to the article I wrote regarding that speech: "Is It Clear Enough Now?"

Brennan: "Top Middle East `negotiator' George Mitchell respected as a master diplomat across the world for having found a way to bring peace to Northern Ireland, resigned only days before Obama delivered his speech. The resignation was a surprise. Why would the U.S. point man for the Middle East resign prior to his region of responsibility taking center stage in both the U.S. and the U.N.? The answer is simple. As a negotiator of peace settlements, he was no longer needed".
"Sometime in 2009, the president got word to the Palestinians that he would accomplish what they and their Arab allies had been unable to do for decades – the creation of a Palestinian state along the 1967 lines. He further must have indicated the time frame associated with the effort as two years—2013."
"Fayyad, the Palestinian Prime Minister would telegraph this to the world in his sudden announcement in August 2009 that a `de facto' Palestinian state would exist in two years…Fayyad's use of the word `de facto' would provide another hint as to how the state would come about, not through a negotiated statement, but through other means".
"Obama had to stop negotiations from taking place, otherwise that would hinder a United Nations vote…Obama had to create a condition for negotiations to begin that the Israelis would never agree to".
"This he did early in his administration, insuring negotiations would be spiked immediately. Additionally, since it would be his condition that the Israelis would find difficult to fulfill, the Palestinians could not be blamed. If it had been the Palestinians that came up with a negotiation-killing condition, it might have impacted their ability to gather enough support for a U.N. statehood vote…The ploy worked, the parties ceased talking and Obama could pretend, without much media scrutiny, that he was doing all he could". "The pincer movement is complete…President Obama is the first anti-Israel president since the Jewish state's rebirth".

My Note:
I would say "no, the pincer movement is not complete quite yet, but almost". Iran has to be provoked to the point where it will attack both Israel and America. To do this, the U.S. is working hard to "draw fire", both in the Persian Gulf, with Pakistan, with Iraq, and now with Afghanistan. It continues to destabilize other nations against the United States and Israel. We are doing some strange things in the Persian Gulf to draw fire – refer to: "Word Fellowship News Update – Drawing Fire" February 17, 2012.
We also went after a man who had been dead for 10 years on Pakistani soil and wow was Pakistan justifiably angry. We are sending unarmed, and armed, drones over Iraq to supposedly protect our remaining interests there – like the largest U.S. embassy on earth.
Recently, with the hideous slaughter of 16 people, 9 children from age 2, a few days ago, by a U.S. Army Staff Sergeant in Afghanistan, incurring rage there, as well as throughout the Muslim world, we are making the Muslim world so angry at us, that not only will they join Russia and Iran in attacking Israel, but will come on and attack the U.S. from without and within, with no mercy. This is written very much in prophecy of our day. I am very suspicious about this attack. More later…
In September 2011, Abbas presented his case for a Palestinian state to the United Nations. It appears that he failed to get what he wanted. But, he got what he went for – convincing the world that they want a state of their own, living side by side in peace with Israel. The Palestinians DO NOT want a state of their own. This is whitewash, and hogwash. They want all of Israel with every Jew dead. That has been their statement. That is Iran's statement. They are playing for time, until the chaos is created to the place where they can "wipe Israel off the map". They are working to force Israel to make her move first, so that the world will turn on Israel.
Abbas, being one of the 33rd degree Mason hierarchs, knew beforehand that they would not get an immediate state. The U.N. has voiced the fact that they want the Palestinians to have a state. But, they, too know, that a state is only a façade for the real plan – to bring the world ruler to power.
It's all a game folks! Watch the enormous false flags flying!
Netanyahu came the day after Obama's May speech, and was he angry! Most of us cheered when he faced the President and said that Israel had a right to defend its borders, and he would not accept indefensible borders. Then he spoke to a compliant Congress, who cheered him on. But, Obama had made his statement first. He made it further impossible for any negotiations.

"Having delivered a speech laying out a draconian new policy against Israel that the Jewish state could not possibly accept, the ply worked, and Netanyahu did not bother delivering his new plan which was dead-on-arrival."

My note: Again, on March 5, 2012, Netanyahu met with Obama in the White House. It was a tense meeting. Netanyahu, after taking a deep breath and looking down, raised his head and said that Israel would not be left indefensible!
Netanyahu has also informed Obama that if they do a pre-emptive strike against Iran, he will not tell the U.S. beforehand. Israel will be forced to go it alone, knowing full well that Russia, China, North Korea perhaps, and surrounding Muslim nations could very well retaliate. Obama knows full well that the retaliation will also come to the U.S. – but that's what he wants. The laboratory that has incubated the new world order and its new Nimrod is now dispensable. Its mind-programmed people are of no use anymore. Thus the prophetic word for "end-time Babylon" is coming soon. No remnant will be left alive in it! [Refer to the Scripture study: "End Time Babylon"]
Obama is cutting our civil defense at a time when we will need it the most. Why? Because there are hundreds of thousands of foreign troops on our soil, 40 million Muslims, Black Water mercenaries, gangs of all types, released convicted felons from our prisons, and chipped-in-the-brain soldiers who are left without mercy and consciousness of what they are doing, to corral the American people in concentration and rape camps – in other words "martial law".

Brennan: From pages 184-185: "When in January 2009, Barack Obama was sworn in as president, the aversion to Civil Defense came with him to the White House. Once in office Obama cut funding to the U.S. Missile Defense Agency airborne laser program…Obama would scale back the ground-based anti-missile system scheduled to be built to defend against Iranian and North Korean missiles…Obama would reverse a deal worked out by the Bush Administration, with the assistance of the brave Poles, to erect as system of missile protection for Europe, based in Poland…But, then something strange happened…In December 2010, an unusual article appeared in the New York Times titled `U.S. Rethinks Strategy for the Unthinkable'. Within the article it was revealed that the Obama Administration was beginning to ramp up Civil Defense efforts specifically against a nuclear detonation within a U.S. city…What the New York Times article did not explain was that after 40 years the U.S. was suddenly pressing to reconstruct the old civil defense program".

My note: I've talked to several in the Civil Defense industry who say that Obama has greatly cut our civil defense – making of weapons, fighter planes, etc. Lockheed has a hiring freeze, and other civil defense plants are laying off employees, even at the highest ranks. Why has our space program been laid to rest, when Russia, China, the E.U. and other space programs are going forward? Why did the U.N. make a treaty several years ago with the nations of the earth to divide up the moon, Mars, outer space in general to different nations? I have a copy of it. Did we back off because we won't be here? Why are the ultra elite of the earth now preparing their "arks" and bunkers and vaults - to get in them asap? [Refer to: "What Are the World's Elite Doing to Prepare Their Arks?"]
Why would he cut civil defense, knowing that Russia, China, North Korea, and perhaps Pakistan, and other nations will be attacking? Obama won't be here when they attack! Will you?

Brennan: From pages 194, 196: "…during the Obama Administration significant `change' has come to U.S. counter terrorist policy…Under Obama, the CIA has killed more people than it has captured mainly through drone missile strikes in Pakistan tribal areas…"

My notes: The CIA is an international organization, as is Israel's Massad. The CIA has torture areas in Eastern Europe, the Middle East, and other places strung around the world, where supposed terrorists are tortured. Of course, as with the Jesuit army, the "terrorists" are often leaders in spreading Christianity or Bible-based Messianic Judaism. Obama has instructed the FBI to tone down any investigations of Muslim terrorists within the U.S. There are jihad camps in many places in America, but they go untouched. Obama is bringing in lots of Muslims from places like Gaza, in the name of helping poor Palestinians. He has appointed "devout Muslims" to key positions in his administration.
For TSA to call out an Arab woman, with a big enough dress to hide lots of explosives to be patted down, is called "racial profiling". But, to ask a 90 year old woman to remove her "diaper" in public is OK, or to take off baby diapers, or look at people naked in their scanner machines, or tell old people in wheelchairs to remove their artificial limbs, is OK. Something smells bad!
As I've written, both Obama and Hilary were trained by Saul Alinksy in radical communist takeover. America is pretty much a full-blown socialist state now. Government and large corporations are working together to corral the money and the power for themselves. But, that scenario is really called Fascism.
We are rapidly moving into a Fascist state. Is anyone noticing? Yes, but few are blowing the whistle. The rise of the powerful elite, in government, in corporations, and the overtaxing of the middle class, in order to eliminate it, thus making two classes – the ultra rich, and the ultra poor who serve the ultra rich. It is happening before our eyes, and few care as long as they can go to work and come home, eat dinner, and watch TV.

The revolt within the Republican Congress, as well as the outspokenness of many Democrats like Bolton, and Romey: "Obama threw Israel under the bus", shows a division is growing regarding the treatment of Israel is becoming a major theme in presidential campaign 2012. Zechariah 12:2-3 is happening in earnest.
The destabilizing of the Middle East in a one-man show (Obama's show)
The destabilizing of world economy (the little horn brings down the Trilateral Commission)
The destabilizing of the human mind (Example: The stabbing near Miami-Jacobs Career College in Columbus, Ohio – March 14, 2012)
The destabilizing of the sun
The destabilizing of families – A 60% divorce rate in America, for example
Hebrews 12:25-28 "I will shake everything that can be shaken so that only those things which cannot be shaken may remain".

Destabilizing on the home front:

Notice more and more school shootings, more and more insane violence? Read the article "Evil: Crossing the Threshold". There is a large gap between sin, flesh, wickedness and pure evil. We've crossed the threshold.
Example: March 12th news – slaughter of civilians in Kandahar village in Afghanistan: From NBC Nightly News: 38-year old Army Staff Sergeant, from Fort Lewis-Mc Chord Army Base near Seattle, Washington, married 3 children, in fourth continuous tour of duty in Muslim nations – goes on rampage and kills 16 people, 9 children, in most hideous ways – the youngest was two. He wrapped the children in blankets and set them on fire. Most of those dead came from one family. He was arrested. But, now he is considered to have been irrational because of so many "tours" of duty, and problems in his marriage. It is also said that he had a brain injury not long ago. The outrage among the Muslims is understandable. The US cry is to get the troops out NOW. But, Obama says he will "on his timetable".
The Taliban is calling for revenge. Jimmy's Carter's creation – the Taliban – turned sour, or turned usable--more enraging of the Muslim world against the "Great Satan".
March 13th information … it was found that recently four different soldiers from this same Army base went on similar rampages, as well as 11 suicides. It is like Fort Bragg, with their hideous family murders – a few years back. It is like the special group on the Iran border in Iraq, a few years back – all of them chipped in the head, supposedly to receive orders in the field – who went on rampages killing innocent people, wives and sweethearts too, then themselves. It is most likely that the chipping experimentation is being carried out at Ft. Lewis-Mc Chord also. It is the same pattern.

The T.V. is blasting out "sound of silence" pulse waves that were used in Iraq in 2003 to overtake Saddam Husseins finest troops, reducing them to crying children, the H.A.A.R.P. elf waves (extra low frequency), the hypnotic rays of "Project Blue Beam" the destroying food crops, the polluted water, the chem trails from airplanes, from vaccines, experimental medicines, and mind-programming day in and day out – with all of this combined, it is a wonder that the American people still have a mind at all. But, with all of this, they won't get out to anything better, because they're programmed into fantasyland and apathy, and being crushed by a python spirit that hovers in the heavenlies. Oh my … now here come the Russians, and their friends! But, like I've written, and like Jeremiah 50 tells us, our attacks will come from our "uttermost borders" (KJV) – our extremities. And we're surrounded on all of our borders NOW, sea and land borders, by Russia and China. Talk about "sitting ducks"! And so many of His people are sitting around waiting for "God" to tell them what to do! He's already screamed at us what to do! Yes, Obama is purposely drawing fire to us. The atrocities that the soldiers did in Iraq against civilians – near 100,000 died because of America soldier's killing civilians – the UN kept a tally. It was estimated that 22% of our ground troops were released convicted felons, who had no problem killing the innocent. But, experiments are being conducted using chips in the heads of soldiers, to see if their natural inclinations to good can be overridden, and they can do evil without remorse, or even memory of it. The Pentagon's DARPA Program is creating "super soldiers" by mixing human and white tiger DNA and a lot more. But, the chipping experimentation is for not only US soldiers, but British, etc., and foreign troops on American soil, so that the human nature can be overridden by the mind programming in the chip.

If a chip can change a person's natural human nature into that of a ravenous wolf, a werewolf mentality, a vampire mentality, against the innocent, then it makes more sense why the world would worship the Beast – there could be something in the chip that would mind-program the receiver of the chip to worship the Beast and to do as they are told to rid the world of Yahuweh's people. Thus families will turn against families without even a thought – and Mark 13:12-13 and Matthew 10:36 be a reality.

How can a father turn in a child to their death, or vice versa? Only by overriding the natural love between them – a chip possibly.
Martial Law troops are ready. F.E.M.A death camps are set in place, and fully operational. The boxcars are ready and the guillotines, too. The DNA mutates are prepared, and the elite are preparing to be out of here!

The destruction of America set in place - the lab is no more needed
So much more could be said. The rise of the revived Roman Empire, which never died, but hid in the Vatican, is getting more and more apparent, as the pope begins giving the world their game-plan for a world bank and a central "governing authority". This is reminiscent of the encyclical that the pope gave Obama July 10, 2009 in the Vatican on his 72nd day of the second 100 days. The papacy is the oldest monarchy on earth, and they have legal right to tell the world's rulers what to do. Now, there is great anarchy within the Vatican, as assassination plot rumors abound, and there is an open contest as to who will be the next pope, the last pope, upon Benedict's death. As the Vatican predicts, this next pope will be the facilitator of the false prophet that will join the anti-messiah to rule the world, and be the ruthless ruler of the Vatican upon removal of its religious façade, to ride its political and economic true nature to power.

So, here we go. Where does that leave you?
I am going to Israel where the question is, not if, but when will Israel go after Iran? I also have an assignment on Patmos. So, whatever Yahuweh has for me, I will do. Thank you for your prayers!
Maintain shalom – always – walk in the nature of Messiah and have shalom, Yedidah – Shabbat Shalom!
