QOM, IRAN: THE IRANIAN NUCLEAR PROGRAM AND ITS CONNECTION TO THE RETURN OF THE SHI'ITE MAUDI--THE TWELFTH IMAM

On October 14, 2011, I cut out an article from The Jerusalem Post regarding the narrowing of the window for Israel to make a first, preemptive, strike on Iran.
The article showed a large satellite picture of the Fordo nuclear facility deep in the mountains of Iran, near the "holy city" of Qom. The article, entitled "Coping With Constant Change" featured the remarks of Major-General Aviv Kochavi, the head of Military Intelligence known as "Aman", and referred to an article written previously that week by Avnor Cohen, an Israeli-American expert on nuclear proliferation, on the same subject of Iran's nuclear threat, and the closing of a window if Israel is going to make a preemptive strike.
On October 24th, as I was reading the novel by Joel Rosenberg, The Twelfth Imam, he mentions the city of Qom, the nuclear facility there, and the Jamkaran Mosque, where the well is that supposedly houses the Maud--the twelfth Imam--until his appearance to take over the world and bring in a one world government under Shi'ite Islam.
This morning, October 25th, I got an e-mail from a friend in Australia. She sent me an article on Iran by David Dolon, in which the city of Qom and the Fordo nuclear facility is mentioned. It is deep in a mountain, and almost impregnable via conventional bombing. The problem is that Iran is moving its enriched uranium to different facilities, but the one at Fordo in the mountains near Qom is a main one. It is also near where the Maudi supposedly dwells for the time being in a well. The connection between the belief of top Iranian leaders in the coming of the Maudi, and the fast build up of enriching uranium for nuclear weapons, is that the Maudi is supposed to bring the world under his power through world war, through the destruction of Israel and America and Europe – through all who oppose Islam. Iran's top leaders want to be top men in the Maudi's world rule. One fanatic regarding the Maudi is President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad himself. This is why he is so bold in his speeches to the UN and elsewhere regarding `wiping of Israel off the map', and the destruction of America--the little satan and the big satan. He believes so strongly in the soon coming of the Maudi, that he is openly fanatical. He believes that by starting the world war necessary to bring the Maudi to power, he will be greatly rewarded by the twelfth Imam.
Patrick Heron, in his book The Antichrist and The New World Order, gives some background on the twelfth Imam. "Islamic tradition and holy writings inform us that several hundred years ago the Maudi, a boy of about twelve, went into hiding and disappeared into a deep well. But, soon, they believe, he will emerge from this well and lead Islam into a series of military victories over their enemies."

For this reason, the leaders of Iran, leaders of Shi'ite Islam, are using this excuse to begin the war and bring back the Maudi out of the well. The worship of the Maudi has increased greatly in the last few years, especially among young people. The well, and the Jamkaran Mosque near Qom, Iran, has become something like the site of the appearing of "Our Lady of Fatima" in Portugal in 1917--a shrine. People come from all over the world to put their prayer requests in the well. Millions of dollars have been put into refurbishing the site, and beautifying and expanding the Jamkaran Mosque.

Here are my notes to date regarding this information that Abba is bringing to my attention. My spirit has been so engaged with this information for many days now, and I know it is important that I know these things, so that I can watch and pray with intelligence.

From The Jerusalem Post article, October 14, 2011, "Security and Defense" by Yaakov Katz: "The existence of this facility was discovered by American Intelligence several years ago…Qom was the ideal location for a secretive site and represents everything the West has to be scared of when planning strategy against Iran."
"Qom was also the city where Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini planned the Islamic revolution before his exile to France in 1965, making the city the ideal place to hide the facility that was supposed to manufacture the highly enriched fissionable material needed for the Shi'ite bomb".
"Fears of the existence of additional facilities have been the focus of Israeli, American, and European Intelligence work for the last two decades. The construction at Qom was the materialization of that fear…"
"The one country that continues to gain from the ongoing upheaval n the Middle East is Iran, which carries no risk to the regime, is continuing to plow forward with its nuclear program, leading some analysts to believe the window of opportunity for a military strike against its nuclear facility is closing".
Avnor Cohen remarks, quoted from his article in the Post: "`The fact that the Iranian nuclear program is further dispersed, that the time for Iran to reach a breakout capacity gets shorter and that material can be moved quickly from site to site, would require a very dramatic intelligence capability to know where everything is' Cohen said".
"The assessment shared by Cohen and other analysts stems from the recent announcements by the Iranian Atomic Energy Organization that it is installing advanced new centrifuges at the Fordo facility buried under a mountain near the city of Qom…In addition to the installation of centrifuges at Fordo, another element that leads to this assessment that the strike window is closing is Iran's continued enrichment of uranium to 20% levels…the uranium enrichment to 20% significantly reduces the amount of time to go to the breakout stage and enrich weapons-grade material to just a number of months. The reason the strike window is closing is because the more Iran disperses its enrichment capabilities, the more difficult it then becomes to destroy them, particularly in a place like the Fordo facility, which Defense Minister Ehud Barak has already said is immune to conventional bombing".

The article goes on to say that the US is pressuring Israel not to make a preemptive strike. Netanyahu has fears that if Israel strikes Iran without the support of the US, and then Obama is re-elected, it may put a severe strain on their relationships. Netanyahu also is thinking of waiting until the results of the 2012 elections. He may be thinking that perhaps if a Republican gets into office, they may be more cooperative with Israel.

However, my comment is that it does not matter who is in office – the world community, the Quartet, the UN, decide what Israel does. Also, whether Republican or Democrat, they are all puppets of the world's elite, bent on establishing a one world government under them, through world chaos. The Illuminati motto is: "Out of chaos, order" – the new world order of course. Netanyahu knows this. But, Israel may be forced to make a strike, and thus start WWIII--the fulfillment of the Mazzini/Pike Plan of 1871--bringing the chaos that will be used to bring the "maudi" of the world elite—Apollyon--son of Lucifer to power.

The article concludes: "…unfortunately, time is not on Israel's side…It ultimately depends on the Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei—the man the Western Intelligence agencies believe has the final say on nuclear matters and would be in charge of making such a decision" – the decision to attack Israel that is with nuclear warheads and bombs.

Years ago, Avi Lipkin, formerly Israeli military, stated that Iran had nuclear weapons from North Korea. Since Russia, China, and North Korea back Iran, Hezbollah, Hamas, the Muslim Brotherhood, and anyone else bent on destroying Israel, it would stand to reason that Iran has the bomb, or at least the components for making it, and nuclear warheads, already in their arsenal. They are waiting, evidently, for the thumbs up by the Ayatollah to herald the coming of the twelfth Imam by starting world nuclear holocaust against the "infidels". Iran's whining that their nuclear plants are only for domestic power use is just a front, but we all suspected that.

From the article sent to me today, October 25th: The article states that in October (this month, 2011) the uranium enrichment is to be moved "to an underground facility in Fordo, near the Shi'ite Muslim holy city of Qom. Built inside of a mountain the facility would be extremely for Israeli or other bombs to destroy in any attack upon Iran's rogue nuclear development program. Currently the regime's main enrichment facility is located near the central town of Natanz".

Regarding other threats to Israel, this article states: "Assad told reporters in early October that he would attack Israel if NATO forces took any action to halt his brutal crackdown".
"Sheik Hassan Nasrallah, the notorious Shi'ite Lebanese Hezbollah militia leader, threatened to `smash the bones of Israeli soldiers' if war broke out in the near future…speaking to reporters in Beirut, the cleric leader warned the next war `will begin in Tel Aviv' ".
Israel reports that the production of gas masks will soon stop if they don't get the 1 billion shekels needed to continue production. So far, only enough gas masks for ½ the population have been made.
Following the release of Gilad Shalit last Tuesday by Hamas, and Israel's release of hundreds of terrorist prisoners with blood on their hands, the result of releasing terrorists into Israel, even 11 into East Jerusalem, is showing up. A few days ago, there were terrorist threats around Jerusalem's Central Bus Station, and throughout Jerusalem. The IDF is on high alert. As part of the deal made with Hamas for Shalit's release, Israel is supposed to release around 500 more prisoners in two months. What is the sanity of such a deal? Like most people, we are happy that Gilad has been released after so many years in Gaza, but at what cost? There were murders released with multiple life sentences. The families of victims of these murderers, deemed heroes by the Palestinians, were devastated. My son and I were in the Old City archeological park that Tuesday morning of the release of prisoners, and we heard repeated firing of something – we wondered if it was gun fire. But, we found out it was fireworks, firecrackers—celebrations going on in the Hinnon Valley and Silwan as the murder-terrorists came home. What is the sanity of this? Would America allow this? Would Europe, the UK, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, etc., allow this? No! What is happening to Israel that events like the "raid on Entebbe" are no more? Since then, America and the UN have curtailed much of Israel's defense of itself, and is now pushing Israel to give away more land, and so reduce their ability to defend themselves to almost zero. It is amazing that so many nations in the UN General Assembly are for giving the Palestinians a state. As written in Zechariah 12:1-3, all nations will turn against Israel, and particularly Israel's right to Jerusalem.
I am very curious as to what Abba will continue to say to me about Qom, since now He has confirmed the information three times within 11 days.

I am here in the north of Israel to watch, learn, research, write and pray and do intercession as He leads. He has put this information deep in my spirit and is confirming it. I intend to do much more research as He gives me information.
Please join me in prayer. Do your own research! Make sure you have a map of Israel on your wall, and are following events as they happen.
In Ezekiel 38:5, we read that Iran (Persia) is the main leader, under Russia, to attack Israel "in the latter days"l, drawing in other countries of the Islamic world. While Iran is not Arab, but Persian, and they speak Farsi, not Arabic, still the Islamic fervor is high. Iran is Shi'ite Muslim. They are in an ideological war with the Sunni Muslims and the Muslims of Saudi Arabia. So, Iran does not represent all of Islam, only a faction. Yet, Russia, China, North Korea, and Islamic groups in general will back Iran if they instigate jihad, holy war, and come against the "infidels" – the non-Muslim world of the West in particular. Russia and China have already agreed to veto any sanctions made against Iran. They are in pact together.
In Genesis 14:9, we read that Chedorlaomer was the King of Elyam—that is ancient Persia/Iran. Abraham went after him for kidnapping Lot, and his forces killed Chedorlaomer near Damascus. As Avi Lipkin has commented, the destruction of Damascus will be tied in to the attack on Israel by Iran. (Isaiah 17:1)
From Genesis 10: Elyam was the oldest son of Shem. The Arabs, for the most part, are descendants of Ham. The family of Eber (Hebrew) which gave us Abraham, Yitzak, and Ya'cob, and the twelve tribes of Ya'cob, came through Shem's son Arpakshad. So, this war is not between Shem and Ham, though Iran will draw in Arab forces (Hamites) to do their dirty work, but between two factions of the family of Shem – one chosen by Yahuweh to become His "chosen people", and one not chosen by Him. This is a family war. Almost all of us Israelites, children of Ya'cob (Israel), are targeted for extinction, not just Judah (the Jews).
Aram was a son of Shem also, from which family Abraham came. Syria is part of ancient Aram – from where we get the language Aramaic--in the "fertile crescent".
In Daniel 10:13, 20; 11:2; the "prince of Persia" attacks the "prince of Greece". Today, that would be Iran attacking the western world, which is built on a Greco/Roman foundation. In Rosenberg's novel, chapter 57, the Maudi says he has come with the help of the prince of Persia. Of course, the prince of Persia is a "principality and power" – a hierarch spirit under Satan. Persia was kind to the Jews under Koresh and Artaxerxes. But, today, Iran is Muslim, and Islam's basic mandate is to kill everyone who will not submit to Islam. The word “Islam” itself means “submission”.

Keep your ears open. The Spirit will teach you what He wants you to know. Act quickly on His instructions. Let Abba’s Spirit teach you His Word so that you are not deceived. Share with others, and watch. Pray for the remnant of the whole House of Ya’cob – which is returning together to fight militarily, before Messiah comes. (Ref. Isaiah 11:12-14)
Shalom! Maintain peace by praise and resting in the goodness of Abba to His faithful servants.
